CERTIFICATE

25267

RESOLVED That the Design Commission, having considered designs for the construction of a university residential building as part of Phase I of the construction of Cornell University/Technion-Israel Institute of Technology's applied sciences campus, Roosevelt Island, Manhattan, submitted by the Economic Development Corporation, represented by exhibits 241-HB, HC, HD, HE, HF & HG of record in this matter, hereby gives to the same unanimous final approval with the understanding that the future adjacent conference center and hotel should have a similar façade treatment, so the two structures create a backdrop to the campus. Several Commissioners noted that the massing of the building, which meets the zoning requirements, is less than ideal given the proximity to the Queensboro Bridge.
