

Do You Have A Disability?

Do you need help applying for shelter or with other program requirements?

We can give certain types of help to make it easier for you to get access to the services you need. This type of help is called a reasonable accommodation. You have a right to ask for this kind of help.

A few examples of conditions that may make it hard for you to get access to the services you need are:

- Vision, speech, or hearing disabilities
- Mobility disabilities (disabilities that make it hard to get around)
- Cognitive disabilities (disabilities that may make it hard to understand forms or remember appointments)
- Mental health conditions like anxiety, depression, bipolar disorder, or schizophrenia

How do I ask for a reasonable accommodation?

- You can ask for help because of a disability from staff at any intake, assessment, or shelter location.
- You can fill out the Reasonable Accommodation Request Form (DHS-13).
- If you are deaf or hard of hearing, you can fill out the Auxiliary Aids Request Form (DHS-5).
- If you need a form in another language, you can visit the DHS website or ask a DHS or shelter staff member for help.
- You can get these forms online: <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/dhs/about/applicants-and-clients-with-disabilities.page> or ask staff for the forms.
- You do not have to fill out these forms to ask for a reasonable accommodation. Staff can fill out the forms for you.

Where can I submit a Reasonable Accommodation Request (RAR) form or a written request for an accommodation?

- Give your completed request form or written request to DHS or shelter staff.
- Ask for a copy of your completed request.
- Write down the date you gave the request to DHS or shelter staff and the name of the person you gave it to on your copy.
- You do not need to give us proof of your condition or disability at the time of the request. We may ask you to give us some documents or additional information that is related to your request later.

What if I need help completing forms?

- You can ask DHS staff, shelter staff, or someone you know for help filling out these forms.

How will I find out if my request was approved?
