Hello,

As a concerned member of the Queens community, I do not think that it is fair to shuffle around voting districts to suit the needs of groups who desire to have their own block. Currently district 31 is adequately represented by Councilwoman Selvena Brooks-Powers and this district should be left as-is. She is a conscientious and hard worker who seeks to include and represent all of her constituents and is doing an excellent job.

Sincerely,

Andre Doris