

NYC Boldest Proudly March in St. Patrick's Day Parade

In near perfect weather, proud members of the New York City Department of Correction marched in the annual St. Patrick's Day Parade.

The parade brought together uniformed and civilian, active and retired members of the Department. It included marchers of Irish background and those who were Irish just for the day. As hundreds of thousands watched and cheered them on, the DOC contingent led by the Department's Drum and Bagpipe Band marched up 5th Avenue. from 45th Street to 79th Street.

This information comes to you from the Office of Public Information