

DOC Proudly Marches in the African-American Day Parade

Dozens of DOC staffers participated in the 47th Annual African-American Day parade on September 18. Members of the Correction Department's Guardians Association and other staff proudly marched in the parade dubbed the "Largest Black parade in America."