Steps to Getting Your Green Cart Permit

1. Get a Mobile Food Vending License if you do not already have one. For information on how to get a license, call 311 (ask for “mobile food vending license”) or go to nyc.gov/greencarts.

2. Get a Green Cart Waiting List Application form online at nyc.gov/greencarts or call 311 (ask for “Green Carts Waiting List Application”).

3. Fill out the Green Cart Waiting List Application form and email mfvpermitwaitlist@health.nyc.gov or mail by April 30th, 2022 to: Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, MFV Permit Waiting Lists 125 Worth Street, C.N. #1000, NY, NY 10013.

4. The Health Department will mail you a postcard with your waiting list number(s) and will send you a Green Cart Permit Application when you are selected from one of the borough waiting lists.

5. If you are selected from a waiting list, you will have 90 days to submit a Green Cart Permit Application. Bring your completed form and other necessary documentation to the Licensing Center. The fee for the permit is $75 by certified check or money order.*

6. You will receive a letter when your Green Cart Permit Application review is complete. You will then have 6 months to bring your Green Cart to a Health Department site for a pre-permit inspection.

7. If your cart passes the inspection, the Health Department inspector will affix a permit decal to your cart.

8. You will receive your permit document in the mail within 4 weeks.
