

You have the right to a safe relationship.

Today your health care provider may ask you about partner violence (being controlled, put down, physically hurt).

Why do we ask?

Partner Violence is a serious problem.

It affects your physical health, your mental health and your children.

When you are ready, talk to your health care provider.

Or call 311, or the New York City Domestic Violence Hotline

1- 800-621-HOPE
(1-800-621-4673)

Help is available 24 hours a day. Services are free, confidential, in many languages and available to everyone regardless of immigration status.

If you are in immediate danger, call 911.
