

TUBERCULOSIS IN NEW YORK CITY, 1959

C O N T E N T S

	Page
Summary	1
Morbidity and mortality, New York City, 1959	3
New cases and deaths, since 1940, chart	3
New cases of tuberculosis reported	4
New cases, case rate, by boroughs	4
Health center districts	5
Source of report	6
Stage of disease	7
Reported at time of death	8
Race, health center districts	9
Age, sex, race	10
Tuberculosis register of active cases	15
Register	16
According to race, health center districts	17
Age and sex	18
Race and sex	20
Positive bacteriological findings reported during year	20
Active cases by race, health center districts	22
Known prevalence of tuberculosis	23
Health center districts and health areas	24
Reactivated cases	36
Community case fatality rates	37
Tuberculin testing, school children	38
Care of the tuberculous	41
Type of care, health center districts	42
Clinic	43
Attendance at Health Department services	45
Private physicians	45
Antibacterial treatment, home cases	46
B.C.G. vaccinations	47
Hospitalization for tuberculosis	48
Pulmonary tuberculosis cases hospitalized	48
New York City residents	49
Department of Hospitals	51
Private tuberculosis hospitals	52
Tuberculosis hospital facilities	53
Bed complement	55
Patient census	56
X-ray examinations for tuberculosis	57
Chest x-rays of patients admitted to general hospitals	60
Cost of tuberculosis	61
Tuberculosis mortality	64
Recorded, sex and form	65
Resident deaths by health center districts	67
Deaths by sex, race	68
Leading causes of death, New York City, 1959	69
Tuberculosis in the United States	70
Large American cities	72
Tuberculosis in selected foreign countries	75
Population	76
Index	77