Supplemental Background Investigation Questionnaire

Your Terms and Conditions of Appointment will not be approved unless you provide all information requested and cooperate fully with this background investigation. If you fail to do so, you may incur disciplinary action, including the termination of your employment or removal from your appointment.

Department of Investigation (DOI) background investigations are detailed and thorough; information you provide will be verified during the investigation.

A false statement or intentional omission made in this questionnaire, or in connection with this background investigation, may result in the imposition of disciplinary penalties, including but not limited to termination of employment or removal from appointment, disqualification from future employment or appointment, and criminal prosecution.

This Supplemental Background Investigation Questionnaire is not a public document and cannot be obtained through a Freedom of Information Act request. However, this questionnaire may be provided, upon request, for use in another government agency's background investigation, or for the purposes of administrative action (e.g., disciplinary proceedings) by your agency, the City's Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings, the Conflicts of Interest Board, or others.

DOI recommends that you keep a copy of this completed questionnaire for your personal records, and for reference in completing any future DOI Background Investigation Questionnaires.

TAX FILING RECORD

- Please review your tax return records for the past five years and provide your filing information below. DOI verifies filing information with the tax authorities.
- For any of the past five years, if you were required to file federal and/or state income tax returns and have not done so by the due date, or within a properly obtained extension period, you are required to promptly file such returns as instructed below.

Filing Instructions and Documentation to Satisfy the Non-Filing of Tax Returns

If you do not provide the required tax filing documentation with your background paperwork, your assigned DOI Background Investigator will request it from you directly.

Federal Returns: Your federal returns can be filed electronically or submitted in person at a local Internal Revenue Service (IRS) office (check IRS.gov for locations). If you file electronically, provide DOI with a copy of the first page and signature page of the returns and a filing confirmation receipt. If you submit your returns in person, provide DOI with a copy of the first page and signature page of the returns stamped as received by the IRS.

New York State Returns: Your New York State returns can be filed electronically or by mail. Provide DOI with a copy of the first page and signature page of the returns, along with an electronic filing confirmation receipt, or an official receipt from the United States Postal Service or an authorized shipping agent.

Other State Returns: If you have not filed your income tax returns for any other state by the due date, or within a properly obtained extension period, file such returns in accordance with the state’s filing guidelines. Provide DOI with a copy of the first page and signature page of the returns, along with an electronic filing confirmation receipt, or an official receipt from the United States Postal Service or an authorized shipping agent.

Check here if additional information is provided in the addendum.

Federal and State Tax Returns

34. Have you filed your federal and state income tax returns by the due date, or within a properly obtained extension period, for each of the past five years?

- Yes (proceed to Question 35)
 No (complete the chart below)

For the “Tax Return Year” column below, refer to the five years listed on the Federal and State Tax Release forms included with your background investigation paperwork. The information below is required only for the years you did not file your federal or state income tax return(s) by the due date, or within a properly obtained extension period.

If you did not file, or were not required to file, because you were a dependent or were unemployed, or because you earned less than the amount required for filing, state this in the “Reason for late or non-filing” section.

- Material sealed, expunged, or set aside under Federal or State law must be disclosed if you are a peace officer or police officer, or if you intend to apply to the DOI Peace Officer Academy. If you are not/do not intend to apply to become a peace officer or police officer, you should not disclose this material.
- Juvenile delinquent or youthful offender adjudications that occurred in state supreme court or criminal court must be disclosed if you are a peace officer or police officer, or if you intend to apply to the DOI Peace Officer Academy, or if your employing/appointing entity is a law enforcement agency (NY Executive Law § 296(16); NYC Administrative Code § 8-107 (11-a)(f)(1)). If you are not/do not intend to apply to become a peace officer or police officer, or if your employing/appointing entity is not a law enforcement agency, you should not disclose juvenile delinquent or youthful offender adjudications (CPL § 720.35). You are not considered a youthful offender simply because of your age at the time of the offense; only a specific court finding determines youthful offender status. If you are unsure whether you were determined to be a youthful offender, list the offense(s) below and provide details.

Juvenile delinquent or youthful offender adjudications removed to family court should not be disclosed.
