

The City of New York
Department of Investigation
ROSE GILL HEARN
COMMISSIONER

80 MAIDEN LANE
NEW YORK, NY 10038
212-825-5900

Release #07-2010
nyc.gov/html/doi

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2010

CONTACT: DIANE STRUZZI
(212) 825-5931

DOI STATEMENT ON 41-MONTH PRISON SENTENCE OF FORMER ACS EMPLOYEE IN BANK FRAUD CONSPIRACY

ROSE GILL HEARN, Commissioner of the New York City Department of Investigation (“DOI”), issued the following statement regarding today’s sentencing of DARLY ESTINVAL, 37, a former Principal Administrative Associate with the City Administration for Children’s Services (“ACS”), for her role in a scheme in which checks issued by ACS to vendors were stolen, altered, and used to create and negotiate counterfeit checks through which banks were defrauded of more than $600,000. In September 2009, ESTINVAL pleaded guilty to Conspiracy to Commit Bank Fraud. She was sentenced today to 41 months in prison and ordered to pay restitution of $617,462 in U.S. District Court in Brooklyn by Judge Sandra L. Townes. She is scheduled to surrender on March 24, 2010. The office of Benton J. Campbell, United States Attorney for the Eastern District of New York, prosecuted the case.

DOI Commissioner Rose Gill Hearn said, “This sentence is a just conclusion to a serious crime and a betrayal of trust against ACS, an agency that uses precious tax dollars to benefit the City’s neediest children.”

ESTINVAL’s ACS job involved mailing checks to vendors and access to the safe where those checks were stored. The investigation found that between 2005 and 2008 ESTINVAL stole ACS-issued vendor checks so they could be counterfeited or altered. ESTINVAL was employed at ACS from May 2004 until her termination in September 2008, two months after she was arrested in connection with this case. At the time of her termination she was receiving an annual salary of approximately $43,700.

Commissioner Gill Hearn thanked Benton J. Campbell, U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of New York; Brian G. Parr, Special Agent-in-Charge of the New York Field Office of the United States Secret Service; and Ronald J. Verrochio, Inspector-in-Charge of the New York Division of the United States Postal Inspection Service, and their staffs, for their joint efforts on this investigation.

The investigation was conducted by DOI’s Office of the Inspector General for the City Department of Finance with assistance from DOI’s Office of the Inspector General for ACS.

Assistant United States Attorney Daniel D. Brownell of the Office of the U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of New York prosecuted the case.

DOI is one of the oldest law-enforcement agencies in the country. The agency investigates and refers for prosecution City employees and contractors engaged in corrupt or fraudulent activities or unethical conduct. Investigations may involve any agency, officer, elected official or employee of the City, as well as those who do business with or receive benefits from the City.

DOI’s press releases can also be found at twitter.com/doinews
Get the worms out of the Big Apple. To report someone ripping off the City, call DOI at (212) 825-5959.