

FOR GENERAL DISTRIBUTION

NYC Department of Investigation's
Office of the Inspector General for the NYPD

Investigator Intern/Fellow Program for Students and Recent Graduates

Spring 2019 (February through May)
Summer 2019 (June through August)

The New York City Department of Investigation's (DOI) Office of the Inspector General for the NYPD (OIG-NYPD) is charged with investigating, reviewing, studying, auditing, and making recommendations regarding the operations, policies, programs, and practices of the New York City Police Department, with the goal of enhancing the effectiveness of the NYPD, increasing public safety, protecting civil liberties and civil rights, and increasing the public's confidence in the police force. OIG-NYPD is independent of the NYPD and is part of the New York City Department of Investigation. For more information, visit www.nyc.gov/html/oignypd.

DOI's OIG-NYPD is seeking undergraduate or graduate student interns, or post-graduate fellows, to assist in a wide range of investigative projects. The positions offers an opportunity to work on cutting-edge issues in a high-profile environment. Interns and fellows will support OIG-NYPD operations and assist investigators in conducting sensitive investigations into the operations, policies, programs, and practices of NYPD. Interns/fellows will review investigative material and related documentation, assist investigators with interviewing the complainants, witnesses, and law enforcement professionals, and will learn about investigative tactics. Interns and fellows will be expected to analyze problems and deficiencies related to complex police operations and assist in preparing investigative reports. They will also help screen and investigate complaints involving NYPD filed by the public. Interns and fellows will also participate in internal and external meetings with key stakeholders. These positions are unpaid.

Qualified candidates should be enthusiastic about working in government and on police accountability, law enforcement, civil rights, and criminal justice issues. Candidates should demonstrate good judgment, high ethical standards, strong analytical and writing skills, and a proactive attitude. All candidates are required to clear a background check.

To apply, please submit a resume, cover letter, and a short (5-10 page) writing sample via email or postal service to:

Daniel Boylan
Director of Investigations
Office of Inspector General for the NYPD
NYC Department of Investigation
80 Maiden Lane, 14th Floor
New York, NY 10038

OIGNYPDintern@oignypd.nyc.gov

(Subject Line: Investigator Internship Spring 2019)

In addition to internships and fellowships with the Inspector General for the NYPD, the NYC Department of Investigation offers internships with other Inspector Generals of NYC agencies as well as with DOI's internal units. To apply for one of these DOI internships, please visit: <http://www1.nyc.gov/site/doi/about/internships.page>.

Applicants participating in an internship, fellowship, or externship program through school should specify the duration of the program and the number of weekly hours they will be available and/or required to work. If applicants are obtaining course credit from school, please include necessary supervisory procedures. Candidates will be required to work a minimum of 15 hours per week from February through May.

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis and the posting will close once positions are filled. Questions may be directed to the email address above.

November 2018

