July 2016

Dear Friends:

Welcome to the 2016 edition of the New York City Youth Guide to Summer Fun!

With sprawling green parks, refreshing beaches and pools, festive street fairs, world-class music and sports venues, and so much more, the five boroughs has something to offer everyone to enjoy summer in our city. The months of July and August also give young people a chance to continue learning and discovering outside of the classroom. This summer’s youth offerings include everything from astronomy and global fashion to learning Italian and kayaking.

My administration remains committed to ensuring that residents and visitors alike have access to the cultural, recreational and educational opportunities that make New York City an international summer hotspot. The NYC Department of Youth and Community Development in collaboration with other City agencies has put together this handy guide with information about free and low-cost events in all five boroughs, and I wish you many fun-filled days as you explore our great city this summer.

Sincerely,

Bill de Blasio
Mayor
Dear Fellow New Yorkers:

It’s that time of year again—summer in New York City!—and the Department of Youth and Community Development is pleased to present the 2016 New York City Youth Guide to Summer Fun.

Whether you plan to cool down in the Rockaways or heat things up at the New York City Fire Museum, gaze at the sky or watch a movie under the stars, take in jazz at Bryant Park or celebrate Summer on the Hudson, you can find them—and many other free and low-cost opportunities—in this convenient guide. DYCD would like to thank the City agencies, museums, youth groups, libraries, arts organizations and cultural institutions that play a role in compiling this information each year.

On behalf of the entire staff of DYCD, I wish you a memorable summer of fun.

Sincerely,

Bill Chong

Bronx Culture Trolley
Hostos Community College
450 Grand Concourse near 149th
5:00pm – 9:00pm
A program of the Bronx Council on the Arts (BCA), the First Wednesday Bronx Culture Trolley was initially conceived as the first action toward creating the South Bronx “Cultural Corridor,” an arts-related economic development plan positioning the lower Grand Concourse as a “Gateway to the Arts in the Bronx.” The trolley provides people with a fun way to get around and attend cultural venues that they might not otherwise have visited.

City Island Historical Society and Nautical Museum
190 Fordham Street, City Island
Bronx, NY 10464 (718) 885-0008
Saturday and Sunday, 1:00pm – 5:00pm
Learn a bit of the area’s history at the free City Island Historical Society and Nautical Museum, which is housed in a 19th-century building that was a school until 1976. Check out the display of wooden boats and the original school desks. The community room is another kid favorite; you’ll find an old typewriter and sewing machine and a topographic map of the area.

Clove Lakes Park
1150 Clove Road, Staten Island, NY 10301
A protected Forever Wild site because of its valuable ecological assets, Clove Lakes Park has a rich natural history and a few remnants of the past that remain and continue to thrill visitors. Chief among them are the park’s lakes and ponds, outcroppings of serpentine rocks, and Staten Island’s largest living things, a three hundred year-old tulip tree.

Conference House Park
408 – 404 Surf Avenue, Staten Island, NY 10307
Conference House Park is a great destination for both park and history buffs. Located at the southernmost point of New York State, this park houses four historic buildings that trace the history of the borough over the course of three centuries. The Conference House, the Biddle House, the Ward House and Rutan-Beckett House all tell of a New York and an America of the past.

Bloomingdale Park
693 Ramona Avenue (Lenevar Avenue)
Staten Island, NY 10309
Staten Island’s newest addition to its vast park inventory, Bloomingdale Park provides the first ball fields ever built on parks property south of Richmond Avenue. Most of the 138-acre park was left natural and passive for wildlife. Walking trails have been included for hiking enthusiasts, as well as scenic waterways. A portion of the park has been re-shaped to offer a baseball field, softball field, soccer field, basketball courts and a playground. A comfort station is also part of the amenities included in the new Bloomingdale Park, with stainless steel toilets and a modern ventilation system.

Staten Island Ferry
The Staten Island Ferry Terminal
Lower Manhattan
More than a means of transportation, the Staten Island Ferry is an attraction unto itself. For no charge, visitors can take a 25-minute voyage by water from Lower Manhattan to Staten Island and take in the Statue of Liberty and the stunning vistas of New York Harbor and the Manhattan skyline. For more info, visit www.siferry.com
Wolfe’s Pond Park
245 Chester Avenue, Staten Island, NY 10312
As one of Staten Island’s largest parks, Wolfe’s Pond Park wears many different hats. To some, it is a beautiful beach. To others, it is a wildlife and plant preserve. To still others, it is a recreation area with space to run, jump, and climb. Choose Wolfe’s Pond Park, and choose your own adventure!

The Staten Island Zoo
614 Broadway, Staten Island, NY 10310
(718) 442-3100
The Staten Island Zoo offers a delightful peek into the world of wildlife. Home to endangered Amur Leopards and frolicking fossas, the Zoo provides a safe habitat for some of your favorite animals. The Children’s Zoo recreates a barnyard setting and the new Kids’ Korral invites you to pet the animals. The Staten Island Zoo is also home to a headline-making weatherman: Chuck the Groundhog. With 85% accurate predictions, Chuck is the pride and joy of the Zoo. www.statenislandzoo.org

South Shore Golf Course
200 Huguenot Avenue, Huguenot (718) 984-0101
A beautiful 18-hole public golf course equipped with driving range, lockers, restaurant and lounge. www.southshoregc.com

Walker Park
88 Delafield Avenue, Staten Island, NY 10301
Walker Park holds a distinguished place in the history of New York cricket and tennis. Initially known as Livingston Park, the name was changed in 1934 to honor Lieutenant Randolph Walker Jr., who died in World War I. Walker was a distinguished member of the local cricket club, and was a good friend of Eugenius H. Outerbridge (1860–1932), the first chairman of the Port Authority (served 1921–1924). The change was the result of a petition sent to Alderman Dennis V. Corcoran by the officers of the Randolph Walker Post of the American Legion. www.nycgovparks.org

William T. Davis Wildlife Refuge
The refuge consists of 260 acres of woodland and salt marsh devoted to nature study, conservation, and enjoyment of the outdoors. Available are extensive trails and a great variety of birds and small animals. Guided tours are given for school classes by advance reservation only. www.nycgovparks.org
