Subject: Equal Employment Opportunity Program

Date: August 12, 2004

Pursuant to Chapter 35 of the New York City Charter, all mayoral agencies are to comply with the provisions of the City’s Equal Employment Opportunity Policy. The Policy sets forth the City’s anti-discrimination, complaint, and investigation policies and procedures; procedures for developing EEO training and annualized agency-specific plans; and a discussion about how work force composition data will be used to monitor the City’s work force. Also included are standards for training, accountability, reporting, and for disseminating the City’s policies and agency plans.

Roy Starrin, BSA Deputy Director, and Mireille Milfort, BSA Executive Assistant will serve as the EEO officers for the Board of Standards and Appeals. They will investigate and resolve complaints of discrimination, facilitate mediation, set and achieve training objectives, and provide guidance to me in developing agency-specific policies and plans.

The Board has adopted a formal BSA specific EEO Policy, Sexual Harassment Prevention Policy and Discrimination Complaint Procedure that conforms to Federal and City guidelines. The EEO Policy, Sexual Harassment Prevention Policy and Discrimination Complaint Procedure have been posted on the BSA bulletin board, and will be distributed.
