EQUAL EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES COMMISSION
CITY OF NEW YORK

Whereas, pursuant to Chapter 36, Section 831(d)(2) of the New York City Charter, the Equal Employment Practices Commission (EEPC) is authorized to audit and evaluate the employment practices, programs, policies and procedures of city agencies and their efforts to insure fair and effective equal employment opportunity for minority group members and women and to make recommendations to city agencies to insure equal employment opportunity for minority group members and women; and

Whereas, pursuant to Chapter 35, Section 814(a) (12) of the New York City Charter, the City established the Citywide Equal Employment Opportunity Policy (EEOP), a set of uniform standards and procedures designed to ensure the equality of opportunity for municipal government employees and job applicants, and, consistent with federal, state and local laws, identified other groups for protection from discrimination in employment; and

Whereas, the Equal Employment Practices Commission audited the Department of Citywide Administrative Services’ Equal Employment Opportunity Program; and

Whereas, in accordance with Chapter 36, Section 832(c) of the City Charter, the EEPC may make a preliminary determination pursuant to Section 831(d) that any plan, program, procedure, approach, measure or standard adopted or utilized by any city agency does not provide equal employment opportunity. Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved,
that pursuant to the audit of the Department of Citywide Administrative Services’ compliance with its Equal Employment Opportunity Policy, as well as Commission policies and EEO standards expressed in City guidelines, the Equal Employment Practices Commission hereby affirms and adopts the following preliminary findings:

1. Seven of the eight internal discrimination complaint files submitted to the EEPC contained handwritten notes.

2. Four of the eight internal discrimination complaint files submitted to the EEPC did not contain a discrimination complaint intake form. (DCPIG, sect. 12(b))

3. Three of the eight internal discrimination complaint files submitted to the EEPC were not closed within 90-days of the date on which the complaint was filed. (DCAS, DCPIG, Amendment of April 2, 1996)
4. Two of the eight internal discrimination complaint files submitted to the EEPC did not contain a written notice of discrimination complaint to the respondent. (DCPIG, sect. 12(b))

5. Although the DCAS provided the EEPC a list of newspapers, journals, publications, and websites it used for recruitment purposes, it (list) included only two-minority-oriented newspapers and one diversity website. In addition, it did not utilize any female-oriented agencies or organizations. (Sect. IV, EEOP)

6. The DCAS last provided structured interviewing training to hiring personnel in June 2002 -- prior to the audit period. (Sect. IV, Citywide EEO Policy)

7. Although the EEO officer received the DCAS’ adverse impact training in 2004, the agency did not conduct adverse impact studies during the audit period. (Section IV, EEOP).

8. The EEO officer is not involved in the agency’s recruitment process. (Section VC, EEOP)

9. Although 60% of survey respondents employed for over one year received annual evaluations, 61% of those respondents indicated that the evaluations did not contain recommendations for improving job performance. (Sect. IV, EEOP)

10. Although supervisors and managers were directed to discuss the agency’s EEO policies with their subordinates at least annually during staff meetings, only some of the meetings were documented.

11. Although the EEO officer reports directly to the agency head on EEO matters, she did not meet with the agency head.

Be It Finally Resolved, that the Commission authorizes the Chair, Ernest F. Hart, Esq., to forward a letter to Commissioner Martha K. Hirst, formally informing her of the findings with appropriate explanations and recommendations and requesting, pursuant to Chapter 36 of the City Charter, her response to these findings within thirty days of receipt of the letter indicating what corrective actions the Department of Citywide Administrative Services will take to bring it into compliance with the aforementioned policies and standards on equal employment opportunity.

Approved unanimously on December 20, 2007.

MEMORANDUM

TO: All DCAS Employees

FROM: Martha K. Hirst

DATE: February 6, 2009

SUBJECT: Equal Employment Practices Commission Audit

I am pleased to note that the EEPC's audit findings were overwhelmingly positive. However, the EEPC has made some recommendations, the majority of which we have already complied with, to enhance DCAS's EEO practices. I would like to share with you certain areas in which DCAS has incorporated the EEPC's recommendations, which should improve the effectiveness of our EEO practices, and, ultimately, better serve you:

- Managers and supervisors will conduct documented meetings with staff, at least once a year, to reaffirm their commitment - and the agency's commitment - to the City's EEO Policy and to discuss the rights of employees to file EEO complaints with DCAS's EEO Officer and/or EEO counselors.
- The agency has developed a Hiring/Structured Interviewing training course, which all personnel involved in the recruitment/hiring process are required to attend.

I reaffirm the agency's strong commitment to maintaining fair employment practices for all our employees. DCAS is committed to preventing all improper discrimination by ensuring that all employees are aware of their rights and obligations under the City's EEOP, and by fostering a cooperative work environment that reflects appreciation for the diversity reflected in our staff.

The "About EEO: What You May Not Know" booklet and Addendum, which is distributed to all agency employees, provides information concerning your right to work in a professional environment, free of bigotry and biases, and your obligation to help maintain such an environment.
In addition please remember that you can obtain a copy of the “About EEO: What You May Not Know” booklet electronically, by accessing the DCAS intranet at http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/abouteeo.pdf. If you do not have access to a computer at your worksite and should need a printed copy of the booklet, please contact the DCAS EEO Officer, Norma Martin, at (212) 669-8645.

I would also like to take this opportunity to remind you of the following:

Amy Hebert, Acting Director of Human Resources, is the agency’s Career Counselor and will provide career counseling to those employees who request it. Her office is located on the 17th Floor of One Centre Street and her telephone number is (212) 669-4434. Employees interested in receiving career counseling should schedule an appointment to meet with Amy.

Michael Slutsky, Director of Labor Relations, is the agency’s 55-a Coordinator and will provide information concerning the 55-a Program to employees who request it. His office is located on the 17th Floor of One Centre Street and his telephone number is (212) 669-3739. Employees interested in obtaining information about the 55-a Program should schedule an appointment to meet with Michael.
