PURPOSE

A completed Form NYC-2020UBT provides documentation that an ERO has been authorized to electronically file Form NYC-204 for a partnership. A general partner of the partnership or a limited liability member manager of the limited liability company may designate the ERO to electronically sign the return by entering the general partner's or limited liability member manager's personal identification number (PIN). The form also authorized payment of tax due on an electronically submitted return by an automatic clearing house (ACH) debit from a designated checking or saving account of the partnership. You cannot revoke this authorization.
