WHO MUST FILE

Every federal Subchapter S banking corporation subject to the New York City Tax on Banking Corporations (Title 11, Chapter 6, Subchapter 3 of the Administrative Code) must file a form (NYC-400B) if its estimated tax for the current year can reasonably be expected to exceed $1,000. For years beginning on or after January 1, 2015, if the corporation is a federal C corporation it is subject to the Business Corporation Tax and must file Form NYC-400 if its estimated tax for the current year can reasonably be expected to exceed $1,000. The term “estimated tax” means the amount of tax the taxpayer estimates to be imposed by section 11-639 of the Administrative Code less the sum of the credits estimated to be allowable against the tax.

NOTE: If the current year's tax is reasonably estimated to exceed $1,000, an estimated payment is required even if this is the first year of business in New York City for the taxpayer or the taxpayer paid only the $125 minimum tax for the preceding year. Failure to pay or underpayment of estimated tax in these circumstances will result in penalties.

LINE 1 - DECLARATION OF ESTIMATED TAX FOR CURRENT YEAR

Corporations whose tax liability for the preceding year exceeds $1,000 are required to pay, with the tax return for the preceding year, or with the application for extension of time for the filing of such return, 25% of the tax liability for the preceding year as a first installment of estimated tax for the current year. After taking credit for that 25% payment and for the amount of any overpayment shown on last year's return which the taxpayer elected to have applied as a credit against the current year's tax, taxpayers filing estimated tax are required to pay the balance of estimated tax in fractional installments.

An amended form should be filed, if necessary, to correct the tax estimate and related payments. Use the NYC-400B or Notice of Estimated Tax Payment Due for making amendments. If the amendment is made after the 15th day of the 9th month of the taxable year, any increase in tax must be paid with the amendment.

LATE FILING

If the NYC-400B is filed after the time prescribed in the chart above, all installments of estimated tax due on or before such time are payable at once and the remaining installments are due as if the form was timely filed.
