Re: Department of Finance v. Parking Ticket Busters Inc. & Emmanuel Amofah

Dear Mr. Amofah:

I have completed my review of the Report and Recommendation (“R&R”) of Administrative Law Judge John Spooner in Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings (“OATH”) Case Index No. 531/18, dated December 6, 2017. (Attached) Judge Spooner was designated to conduct a hearing on charges that you violated the City of New York Department of Finance’s (“DOF”) broker conduct rules while appearing before DOF’s Parking Violations Bureau (“PVB”). These charges were served upon you on August 24, 2017 and a hearing was held at OATH on November 16, 2017 before Judge Spooner.

I hereby fully adopt Judge Spooner’s findings and the recommendations in his R&R. Effective immediately, you and your company, Parking Ticket Busters Inc. are suspended from appearing before the DOF’s Parking Violations Bureau in any capacity, except for parking violations issued in your name personally, for a period of five (5) years until December 12, 2022 pursuant to 19 RCNY § 39-09 (a)(9). This constitutes the final determination on this matter.

Sincerely,
