

Diversity Tax Day

Free Tax Seminar and Education Event

For English as a Second Language Taxpayers – Individual and Business Taxes

Seminario de Ayuda para Impuestos y Eventos Educativo

Queens Library at Flushing
41-17 Main Street
Flushing, New York 11355

July 10th from 5:30-8:00 PM

Margaret Neri Deputy Commissioner, Taxpayer Rights Advocate & Ethics Officer New York State Department of Taxation and Finance	Eunkyong Choi NYC Taxpayer Advocate The Office of the Taxpayer Advocate New York City Department of Finance	Man-Li Lin Economic Development Specialist U.S. Small Business Administration
Sharon Bradley IRS Chief, ITIN Policy Section	Brenda Stuart-Luke IRS Communication Liaison	Darol Tucker IRS Brooklyn Local Taxpayer Advocate

This free tax seminar and education event will cover tax updates for individuals and businesses, featuring the following topics:

TOPIC	SPEAKER
1. How to get an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN)	Sharon Bradley, IRS, Chief, ITIN Policy Section
2. IRS Programs and Assistance for Business	Brenda Stuart-Luke, IRS, Communication Liaison
3. NYC Business and Property Tax Issues	Eunkyong Choi, NYC Taxpayer Advocate
4. Introducing the Taxpayer Advocates' Offices	Darol Tucker, IRS, Taxpayer Advocate Service Margaret Neri, Deputy Commissioner, Taxpayer Rights Advocate & Ethics Officer Eunkyong Choi, NYC Taxpayer Advocate
5. How the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) Can Help Your Business	Man-Li Lin, Economic Development Specialist, SBA

This seminar and education event will be followed by a one-on-one question and answer session with Agency Representatives.