

Work with children and families? We'd like to work with you

In partnership with Manhattan Borough President Gale Brewer, the New York City Office of Child Support Enforcement would like to invite representatives of community- and faith-based organizations to attend a special event.

- Discover the benefits of child support for children and their parents
- Connect your community members to free child support workshops and programs to help them find jobs, reduce their child support debt, and lower their child support orders
- Network with other family-focused organizations in your area
