What You Need to Know About The Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (Food Stamps)

The Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, formerly called the Food Stamp Program, provides food support to low-income New Yorkers including working families, the elderly and the disabled to increase their ability to purchase food. You can purchase food by using an Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) card where you shop.

How much income can I have and still be eligible for Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program benefits?

You can be employed, own your own home and car, have money saved, and still be eligible. Many immigrants can receive a benefit, too. You should come in and apply if you need assistance. The amount of benefits you receive depends on your household size, expenses, and your income. Each application is evaluated on an individual basis.

If I am receiving SSI/Disability benefits, do I still qualify? Will my SSI/Disability payments be reduced?

You can still qualify for Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program benefits even if you receive SSI/Disability benefits. Your benefits will not be reduced.

How can I apply?

- » You can apply online and get an application as well as an eligibility prescreening by going to nyc.gov/accessnyc
- » Call HRA's Infoline at 718-557-1399 or 311 and we will send you an application and information on where you can mail it in, fax or bring in person
- » Download an application from HRA's website at nyc.gov/hra/foodstamps
- » Pick up an application from any HRA Center

If you have an authorized representative, he/she can file the application for you at any Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program Center or at a participating community based organization.

You can conduct your eligibility interview over the telephone without having to come into a SNAP center.

How soon after I apply will I receive my benefit?

It normally takes 30 days for your Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program application to be processed. However, if you qualify for expedited processing, you can receive your benefits within five days.

What Type of Documentation Will I Need?

While documentation is not needed to apply, you will eventually be asked to verify the information you give us. Below is a list of documents. If you provide them right away, we can determine your eligibility faster. If you don't have all the documents, you can still apply. When possible, HRA staff can help you get them.

- » Proof of Identity: Photo ID, driver's license, passport, naturalization certificate, hospital/doctor's records, or adoption papers.
- » Proof of where you live: Statement from landlord/primary tenant, current rent receipt or lease, or mortgage records.
- » Proof of Income (if any): Current pay stubs, pay envelopes, business records, tax records, or current income tax return, etc.
- » Proof of Citizenship or Current Immigration Status: Birth certificate, U.S. passport, USCIS documentation, military service records, etc. (Receiving Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program benefits will not affect your immigration case or lead to deportation.)

The image shows two tax forms. The top form is a 1040EZ, titled 'Department of the Treasury Income Tax Return Joint Filers With No Dependents'. It includes sections for 'Your personal and other information', 'Check here if you, or your spouse if a joint filer, are claiming the following tax credits', and 'Additional information'. The bottom form is a 1040, titled 'Department of the Treasury Income Tax Return'. It includes sections for 'Your personal and other information', 'Check here if you, or your spouse if a joint filer, are claiming the following tax credits', and 'Additional information'. Both forms have various lines for reporting income, deductions, and credits.
