Basic Information

Procurement Title:	Health and Fitness Program
Agency:	Administration for Children's Services
Agency Email Contact:	Fitness-CP@acs.nyc.gov
Procurement Description:	This concept paper is being offered to New York City's community-based organizations, service providers, and the public to inform them about a Request for Proposals (RFP) that ACS expects to release in 2018. Through the RFP, ACS will standardize a health and fitness program in detention, which house youth detained and/or remanded to ACS Secure Detention facilities pending resolution of their cases. The RFP will seek to identify providers that can implement a year-round health and fitness program that will promote healthy lifestyles among youth through moderate or vigorous-intensity aerobic physical activity including aerobic fitness, strength training, core exercises, balance training, and flexibility and stretching as well as educational programming on health and wellness. ACS is seeking providers with demonstrated experience in developing and maintaining such programming for detained youth. Providers must have experience creating and leading health and fitness programs, working with community-based organizations and juvenile justice populations, and helping youth remain connected to health and fitness programs in the community upon release.
