Community service is not employment and may not include political activities. Each adult non-exempt member of Tenant's household must perform eight hours of community service per month or participate in an economic self-sufficiency program for eight hours per month, as specified in the Landlord's Community Service Policy. The Landlord will deliver to the Tenant a detailed written description of the service requirement, exemption and compliance provisions of the Community Service Policy.

5. OCCUPANCY

- b. If the Tenant fails to accurately report a change in income within 30 days after the event as provided in Paragraph 7 (d), or otherwise as the Landlord may direct, or misrepresents or misstates the correct income of the Tenant or any member of the Tenant's household, then, in addition to any other remedy income of the Tenant or any member of the Tenant's household, then, in addition to any other remedy available to the Landlord, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord additional rent in the amount of the difference between the rent which would have been charged by the Landlord to the Tenant had the correct income been reported to the Landlord at the time required and the rent actually paid by the Tenant during the period involved. Any retroactive charge shall be deemed rent for all purposes under this Lease including collection by a non-payment summary proceeding,

- c. If the Tenant fails to provide all reportable income for the Tenant and other members of the Tenant's household, or if the Landlord is unable to verify such information as the Tenant does provide, then in addition to any other remedy available to the Landlord, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord the applicable maximum rent for the Leased Premises as determined by the Landlord.

7. INFORMATION TO BE FURNISHED BY THE TENANT

The accuracy of any information furnished or document submitted by the Tenant is subject to independent verification by the Landlord.
- c. The Tenant shall notify the management office of the Development ("Property Management Office") of any birth or death or other changes in Tenant's household, within 30 days after the event.
- d. The Tenant shall report to the Property Management Office, within 30 days after the event,
 - (i) the receipt of new public assistance by the Tenant or any member of the Tenant's household or the discontinuance of public assistance for any such person;

These records and their supporting evidence, including bills, receipts, bank pass books, statements, canceled checks, and copies of returns submitted to government agencies, shall be made available for examination by the Landlord.

8. TRANSFER TO APPROPRIATE SIZE APARTMENT

10. UTILITIES, SERVICES AND EQUIPMENT

The Landlord shall furnish without additional cost (except as otherwise provided in Paragraph 15(c)) heat and hot water in accordance with requirements of law and applicable rules and regulations of municipal and state agencies, gas and electricity in normal quantities which may be fixed hereafter by the Landlord (except that the Landlord shall not supply gas and electricity if the Development is one in which residents are charged directly by the provider utility company), and use of a stove and a refrigerator.

11. SECURITY DEPOSIT

- a. Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph "b" or "c" below, the Tenant shall deposit with the Landlord a security deposit to be used following the Tenant's vacating the Leased Premises as reimbursement for the cost of repairs beyond normal wear and tear and for rent or other charges owed by the Tenant. The amount of such deposit shall be the greater of one month's rent, as set forth in Paragraph 1 above, or the amount set forth in the appropriate item below:

Modification of the security deposit schedule shall be in accordance with the procedure for notice set forth in Paragraph 22 hereof.
- c.  - (ii) violation by any non-exempt member(s) of the Tenant's household of the Community Service Policy, referenced in Paragraph 4 herein, except that such violation will be grounds solely for non-renewal of the Lease at the end of any twelve-month Lease term, or
 - (iii) other good cause.
- b. Prior to the commencement of a non-payment proceeding, the Landlord shall give notice in writing to the Tenant requiring, in the alternative, the payment of the rent or surrender of the possession of the Leased Premises, (except that Landlord shall not have waived any right to collect all rent and additional rent due and owing should the lease be terminated and the tenant evicted from the Leased Premises) and advising the Tenant of his/her/their right to request a hearing upon his/her/their compliance with the conditions contained in the Grievance Procedures described in Paragraph 20 hereof. Such written notice shall be given no less than 14 days prior to commencement of the non-payment proceeding in the manner provided by Paragraph 18 of this Lease.

Such schedules, rules and regulations may be modified from time to time by the Landlord, provided that the Landlord shall give at least 30 days' prior written notice to the Tenant if the Landlord, in its discretion, determines that the Tenant is affected thereby. Such notice shall set forth the proposed modification and the reason therefore and shall provide the Tenant an opportunity to present written comments which shall be taken into consideration by the Landlord prior to the proposed modification becoming effective. A copy of such notice shall be

- a. delivered directly or mailed to the Tenant; or

 - (i) criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, engaged in by a member of the Tenant’s household or any guest or other person under the Tenant’s control, shall not be cause for termination of the tenancy or occupancy rights, if the Tenant or immediate member of the Tenant’s family is a victim of that domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
 - (1) Notwithstanding subparagraph (b)(i), the New York City Housing Authority (“Landlord”) may bifurcate the Lease in order to evict, remove, or terminate assistance to any individual who is a Tenant or lawful occupant and who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others, without evicting, removing, terminating assistance to, or otherwise penalizing the victim of such violence who is also a Tenant or lawful occupant.
 - (ii) Nothing in subparagraph (b)(i) may be construed to limit the Landlord’s authority, when notified, to honor court orders addressing rights of access to or control of the Leased Premises, including civil protection orders issued to protect the victim and issued to address the distribution or possession of property among the household members in cases where a family breaks up.

NYCHA Resident Lease Agreement

- (iii) Nothing in subparagraph (b)(i) limits any otherwise available authority of the Landlord to evict the Tenant for any violation of the Lease not premised on the act or acts of violence in question against the Tenant or a member of the Tenant’s household, provided that the Landlord does not subject an individual who is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to a more demanding standard than other tenants in determining whether to evict or terminate.
- (iv) Nothing in subparagraph (b)(i) may be construed to limit the Landlord’s authority to terminate the tenancy of any Tenant if the Landlord can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants, to the Landlord’s employees, or to those providing service to the Premises if the Tenant’s tenancy is not terminated.
- c. The Landlord will provide the Tenant with a Notice of Occupancy Rights Under VAWA and a HUD VAWA Certification Form in accordance with federal regulations.
- d. Under the Landlord’s emergency transfer plan, tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking can apply for an emergency transfer. Eligible tenants who meet the requirements will be given a transfer priority on NYCHA’s waiting list.
- e. Nothing in paragraph b. shall be construed to supersede any provision of any federal, state, or local law that provides greater protection than paragraph b. for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
