

Be prepared for any emergency by making sure you have registered for Notify NYC, New York City's official source for information about emergency events. A free service provided by NYC Emergency Management (NYCEM), Notify NYC provides 24/7 information updates on all kinds of emergencies, from winter storms to terrorists' threats. You can register to receive alerts via email, phone, text, Twitter, fax, instant message, or BBM. Visit nyc.gov/notifynyc or call 311 to register, or follow @NotifyNYC on Twitter. For additional information, visit NYCHA's Office of Emergency Management site at on.nyc.gov/nycha-oem.
