Health Insurance and You

Coverage and Care for International Students

PHOTOS ARE OF MODELS USED FOR ILLUSTRATIVE PURPOSES ONLY

New York makes it easy for international students to get health coverage and care. You can get more affordable health care when you have health insurance.

You can get health insurance coverage through the New York State of Health Marketplace and free or reduced medical care at Health and Hospitals Corporation, Department of Health and Community Health Centers.

New York State of Health Insurance Options

Child Health Plus

Regardless of your immigration status, if you are under the age of 19, you may qualify for this coverage. This program provides children with health care for free or at low monthly premium depending on income. There are no copayments for services.

Medicaid for Pregnant Women

Regardless of your immigration status, if you're pregnant, you may qualify for Medicaid. You will need to provide proof of identity, income and residency. This program helps you receive prenatal care and other services such as lab tests, HIV tests, nutrition screenings, related to pregnancy and other medical care covered by Medicaid. Coverage lasts until at least two months after delivery for the parent and the baby is insured for up to a year after birth.

Essential Plan

The Essential Plan is a free or low cost health plan for eligible adults who don't qualify for Medicaid or other coverage. You may qualify if you are a New York resident and have a valid student visa. Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) recipients and undocumented immigrants are not eligible for the Essential Plan.

Qualified Health Plans

Qualified Health Plans are private health insurance plans. They provide essential health benefits and follow established limits on deductibles, co-payments, coinsurance and out-of-pocket maximum costs. The American Rescue Plan expanded financial assistance to lower your monthly premiums for Qualified Health Plans when enrolling through NY State of Health.

Other Coverage Options

Medicaid for the Treatment of an Emergency Medical Condition

This coverage, sometimes called Emergency Medicaid, helps eligible, undocumented, and temporary immigrant New Yorkers get care and pay for medical costs when they have a medical emergency.

Family Planning Extension Program

This program covers all women and adolescents who lose their Medicaid eligibility after the end of pregnancy and who don't have other health insurance coverage, regardless of immigration status. This covers all forms of birth control, emergency contraceptive services, preventive screenings, STI and HIV counseling, testing, and treatment, and pregnancy counseling and testing. Coverage begins 60 days after giving birth and provides up to 24 months of care.
