Essential Plan

BACKGROUND
Essential Plan Background

ACA option for states to create a “Basic Health Program” to provide affordable insurance
  • Premiums more affordable than standard subsidized Marketplace coverage
  • Affordable cost sharing
  • Minimally provide essential health benefits available through QHP

NY’s Basic Health Program is the Essential Plan (EP)

Estimated savings to NY from EP: $300 million annually
Essential Plan

ELIGIBILITY
Populations That Are EP Eligible

- Income Eligible QHP Enrollees
- Lawfully Present Aliessa on Medicaid
- Former Family Health Plus

Essential Plan

- EP Eligible but Currently Uninsured
Eligibility for EP

1. Not eligible for Medicaid, Child Health Plus, or affordable minimal essential coverage (e.g., employer insurance, Medicare)

2. Age 19*-64

3. Meet citizenship/immigration and corresponding income requirements

* All children under 19 are eligible for CHP and therefore not eligible for EP.
EP Eligibility: Citizenship / Immigration Status & Income

</tbody>
</table>

* This population is currently Medicaid eligible. In 2016 they will be eligible for EP instead.
“Lawfully Present”

- Only U.S. Citizens and Lawfully Present immigrants and nonimmigrant visa holders are eligible for EP or QHPs.

- “Lawfully present” is not an immigration term! It is a term used to classify whether non-citizens are eligible for certain benefits, like Medicaid.

- The ACA regulations (45 CFR § 152.2) define which non-citizens are considered lawfully present. Don’t try to guess!
Who Are Aliessa Immigrants?

- The Aliessa v. Novello lawsuit established eligibility for state-only funded Medicaid for certain immigrants in NYS.

- Aliessa immigrants are:
  - Qualified Aliens in their 5-year Medicaid waiting period
  - “Lawfully Present” Immigrants Permanently Residing Under Color of Law (PRUCOL) (includes people in valid nonimmigrant status)
  - PRUCOL-Only immigrants – these people are not considered “lawfully present”

- They are only eligible for NYS-funded (not federal) Medicaid (Exception: Children under 21 and pregnant women get federal Medicaid – they are not technically “Aliessa” immigrants)
Not All Aliessa Immigrants are “Lawfully Present”

- Certain Aliessa Immigrants are not considered “Lawfully Present” under federal regulations
  - They are “PRUCOL-Only” (aka “Residual PRUCOL”)
    - Includes DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals) and DAPA (Deferred Action for Parents of Americans and Lawful Permanent Residents)

- Aliessa Immigrants who are PRUCOL-Only are not eligible for EP or QHPs

- PRUCOL-Only immigrants are eligible for and will remain in state-funded Medicaid if income eligible
Who is eligible for original DACA?

To be eligible for deferred action under the DACA program, you must:

- Have come to the United States before your sixteenth birthday.
- Have lived continuously in the U.S. since June 15, 2007.
- Have been present in the U.S. on June 15, 2012, and on every day since August 15, 2012.
- Not have a lawful immigration status on June 15, 2012. To meet this requirement, (1) you must have entered the U.S. without papers before June 15, 2012, or, if you entered lawfully, your lawful immigration status must have expired before June 15, 2012; and (2) you must not have a lawful immigration status at the time of your application.
- Be at least 15 years old at the time you apply for DACA. If you are currently in deportation proceedings, have a voluntary departure order, or have a deportation order, and are not in immigration detention, you may apply for DACA even if you are not yet 15 years old.
- Have graduated or obtained a certificate of completion from high school, have obtained a general education development (GED) certificate, be an honorably discharged veteran of the Coast Guard or U.S. armed forces, or “be in school” on the date you submit your DACA application. See below for more information about meeting the “be in school” requirement.
- Have not been convicted of a felony offense. A felony is a federal, state, or local criminal offense punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year.
- Have not been convicted of a significant misdemeanor offense or three or more misdemeanor offenses. See below for more information about offenses that may disqualify you.
- Not pose a threat to national security or public safety. (DHS has not defined what these terms mean but has indicated that they include gang membership, participation in criminal activities, or participation in activities that threaten the U.S.)

Taken from the National Immigration Law Center’s “Frequently Asked Questions: The Obama Administration’s Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA).” Available here: https://www.nilc.org/dapa&daca.html
Who is eligible for expanded DACA?

To be eligible for the expanded DACA program, you must:

- Have come to the United States before your sixteenth birthday,
- Have continuously lived in the US since January 1, 2010,
- Have been present in the US on June 15, 2012, and on every day since August 15, 2012,
- Have graduated or obtained a certificate of completion from high school, have obtained a general education development (GED) certificate, or “be in school” on the date that you submit your deferred action application, and
- Have not been convicted of certain criminal offenses.

Taken from the National Immigration Law Center’s “Frequently Asked Questions: The Obama Administration’s DAPA and Expanded DACA Programs.” Available here: https://www.nilc.org/dapa&daca.html
How do you distinguish DACA from other deferred action?

- Look at the work authorization code:
  - DACA beneficiaries have a work authorization code of (c)(33)
    - These individuals will stay in Medicaid
  - Other deferred action beneficiaries have a work authorization code of (c)(14)
    - These individuals will move to EP
Who is eligible for DAPA?

- To be eligible for deferred action under DAPA, you must:
  - Be the parent of a U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident,
  - Have continuously lived in the U.S. since January 1, 2010,
  - Have been present in the U.S. on November 20, 2014. It’s also likely that you will need to be present in the U.S. every day from Nov. 20, 2014, until you apply for DAPA,
  - Not have a lawful immigration status on November 20, 2014.
  - Have not been convicted of certain criminal offenses, including any felonies and some misdemeanors.

Taken from the National Immigration Law Center’s “Frequently Asked Questions: The Obama Administration’s DAPA and Expanded DACA Programs.” Available here: https://www.nilc.org/dapa&daca.html
EP & “Lawfully Present” Aliessa Immigrants ≤ 138% FPL

- Most “Lawfully Present” Aliessa Immigrants ≤ 138% FPL will be moved to EP from Medicaid
- Moving them from NYS-funded Medicaid to EP means NYS will get federal assistance towards the cost of their healthcare
Not all Lawfully Present Aliessa Immigrants will move to EP

Some Lawfully Present Aliessa Immigrants with incomes ≤138% FPL will not move to EP from Medicaid:

• Need long term home or personal care
• Need long term nursing home care
• Health and Recovery Plan (HARP) enrollees
• Medicaid waiver recipients
Adult* Marketplace Coverage by Immigration Status 2016+

* Chart does not cover 19 & 20 year olds and pregnant women.
Special Population: 19 & 20 Year Olds

- 19 & 20 year olds who live with a parent:
  - Get Medicaid if their income is ≤155% FPL (except undocumented immigrants)
  - Get EP if their income is 156-200% FPL (except undocumented and PRUCOL-Only immigrants)

- 19 & 20 year olds who don’t live with a parent:
  - Get Medicaid if their income is ≤138% FPL (except undocumented immigrants)
  - Get EP if their income is 139-200% FPL (except undocumented and PRUCOL-Only immigrants)
Special Population: Pregnant Women

- Pregnant women get Medicaid, not EP
- All pregnant women get Medicaid if their income is $\leq 223\%$ FPL
  - True of pregnant Lawfully Present Aliessa Immigrants too. They will not be moved from Medicaid to EP.
  - Also true of undocumented pregnant women
- Because they can get Medicaid, pregnant women are not eligible for EP.
Cannot Choose between Essential Plan and QHP w/APTC

- A person eligible for EP may choose a full pay QHP.
