Request for Information (RFI) to Understand Qualified Organizations' Capabilities to Provide a Comprehensive, Cost-Effective Employee Health Benefit Program

The City of New York (City) acting through New York City Mayor's Office of Labor Relations (OLR) in cooperation with the Municipal Labor Committee (MLC) is issuing an RFI to understand qualified organizations' capabilities to provide a comprehensive, cost-effective employee health benefit program. This RFI seeks information from a wide range of organizations. Interested qualified firms may submit responses to this RFI to the City and the MLC. This program will have a target effective date of January 1, 2024.

Respondents to this RFI should not anticipate award of a contract; this is an information gathering process only. This RFI is for planning purposes only and should not be interpreted as a solicitation for bids/proposals on the part of the City or the MLC.

The RFI, along with the requirements for the electronic submission of a response are available as of June 16, 2022. To download a copy of the RFI, please register your company online at <http://www1.nyc.gov/site/olr/about/about-rfp.page>. RESPONSES ARE DUE NO LATER THAN July 14, 2022.
