§ 3-06 Fees For Applications Pursuant to City Charter § 197-c and Other Applications.

Except as specifically provided in this section, every application for a map change, landfill permit, special permit, zoning authorization or certification, revocable consent for sidewalk café, or cable television franchise or for a modification or renewal thereof, made on or after {August 1, 1995} October 21, 2002, shall include a non-returnable fee which shall be paid by check or money order made out to the Department of City Planning. The fee of an initial application, or for a modification thereof, shall be as prescribed in the following Schedule of Charges, provided that if an applicant simultaneously submits applications for several actions relating to the same project, the maximum fee imposed shall be two hundred percent of the single highest fee. The fee for a modification which is subject to § 197-c of the New York City Charter shall be the same as the fee for an initial application, as provided in § 3-07, subd.(a) of these rules. The fee for renewal shall be one-half of the amount prescribed in the schedule for an initial application. A fee abatement for a portion of such project shall be calculated upon the percentage of the square footage allocated to the affordable housing and shall proportionally reduce the standard fee attributable to the square footage of the entire project, including such affordable housing portion. In no event shall the portion allocated to the affordable housing part of a project be used to decrease the total project square footage so as to place the project in a lower fee. Fees shall be paid when the application is filed, and no application shall be processed by the Department until the fee has been paid.
