

Atlantic Avenue Corridor Public Kickoff Meeting Community Board 3 Presentation September 9th, 2014

Department of City Planning - Transportation Planning Division

Why are we here?

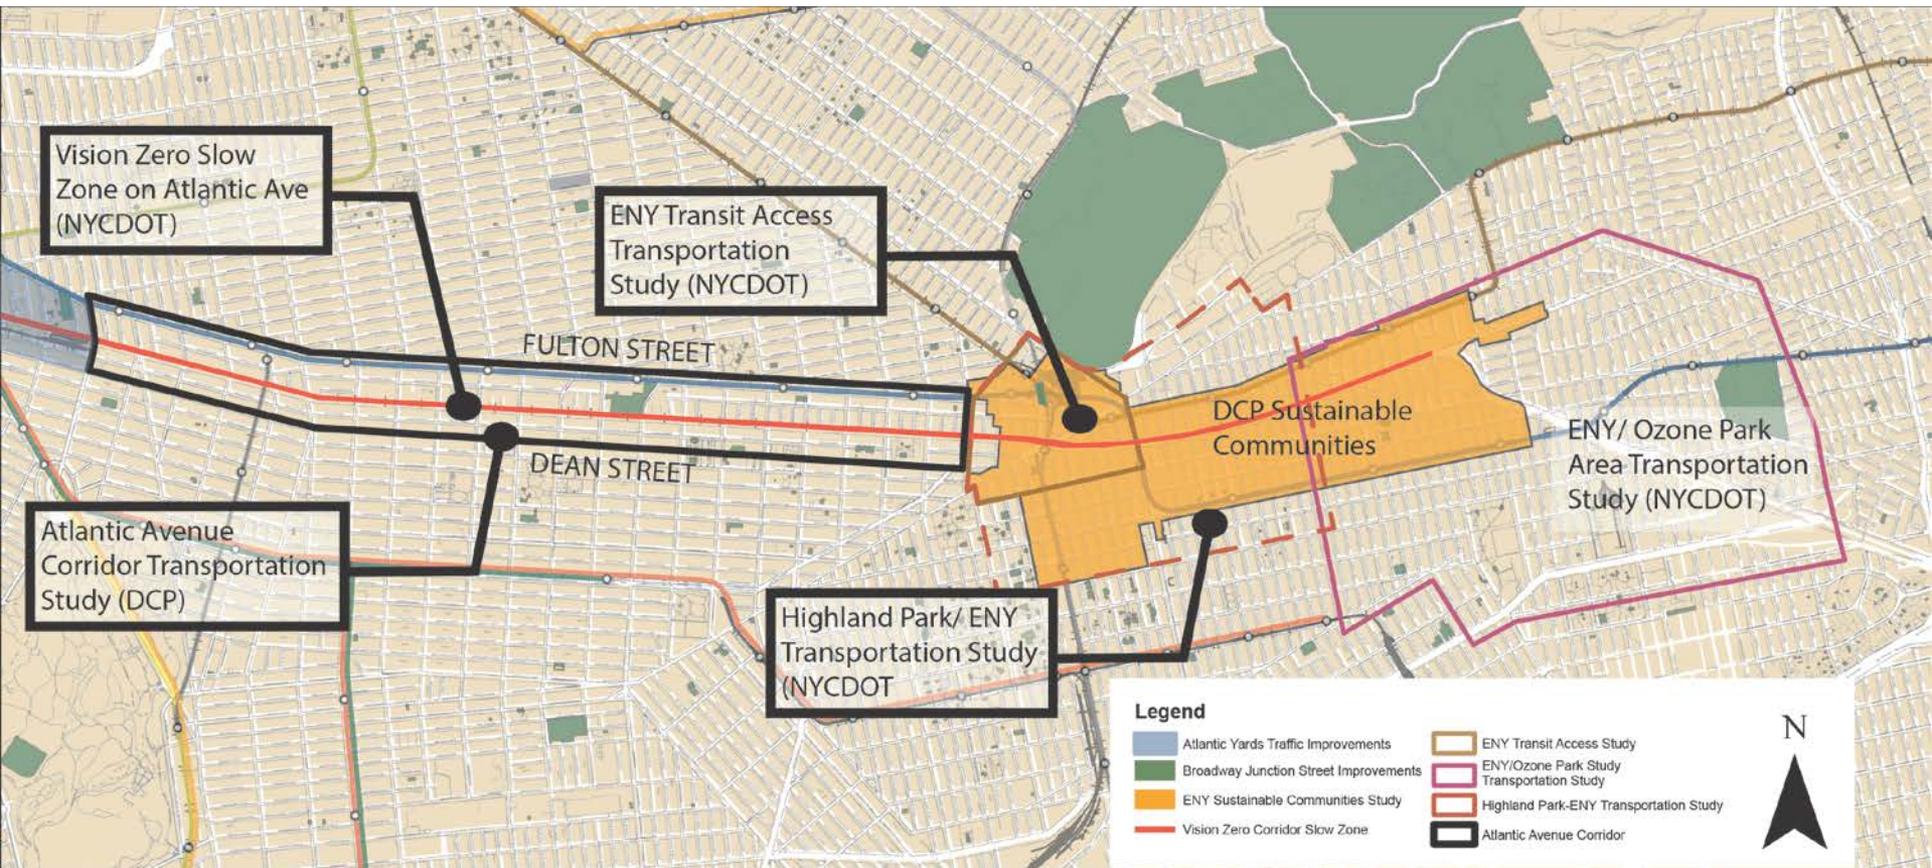

- We are starting a Transportation Study of Atlantic Avenue
 - From Vanderbilt Avenue to Eastern Parkway Extension

Why are we here?

- We're here to begin a long-range transportation planning effort exploring solutions to ongoing and future transportation issues in the community
 - We are studying current demands and possible future demands on the corridor
- We are here to identify strategies that can enable the corridor to serve current and future transportation needs
- We want to improve safety and livability as part of Mayor Bill De Blasio's Vision Zero

What other projects are happening in the area?

Tell us what you think!

- What is your vision for Atlantic Avenue?
- What are your top concerns on the avenue?
- How can we make the streets and crosswalks more welcoming and safer to cross?
- Where do you think transportation issues are likely to arise in the future?
- What can be designed better here?
- Who can we contact for potential partnerships?

NEXT STEPS:

- We are planning to hold working sessions with community stakeholders to identify transportation issues and opportunities
