Transforming the Sheridan Expressway

Recommendations include:

- Removal of barriers to join the northern section of the Sheridan Expressway with existing service roads.
- Establishing three traffic-signal-controlled crosswalks along the expressway to allow pedestrians to cross.
- Rezoning actions to foster a mix of uses along the waterfront and target growth and job opportunities along transit-rich corridors.

All of the recommendations, described in more detail in the final report, require additional analysis, design, and coordination.