JOB DESCRIPTION

The NYC Department of Probation (DOP) is a world leader in working creatively and effectively engaging with people under court-mandated community supervision. Through innovative partnerships with people and organizations throughout the New York City, DOP provides opportunities for those on probation to access services and opportunities that positively impact their life trajectory. Following the best current data on “what works,” staff at DOP engage in meaningful relationships with those on probation in an effort to enhance community safety and decrease recidivism.

DOP works with community-based organizations to provide programming that enhances services, resources, supports and opportunities for juveniles, young adults and adults involved in the criminal justice system. The ultimate goals of the programs are to help build stronger and safer communities. The programs promote lifelong educational gains, career exploration, employment attainment and retention for justice involved individuals.

The Community Associate will be assigned to a specialized unit responsible for providing day-to-day supervision of a portfolio of programs. The unit works with the community-based organizations described above to ensure programmatic and contractual goals are met, in addition to overseeing the effective implementation of program model components. Among other responsibilities, this unit: monitors and evaluates program services; reviews program plans and budgets; conducts field visits to the program site, provides technical assistance and expertise; evaluates performance and metrics; make summary reports to higher administrative levels along with recommendations to improve programs and prepare standard reports as designated by senior staff. And perform other related duties as necessary.
PREFERRED SKILLS:

- Understanding of the mission, goals and objectives, structure, and operations of DOP.
- Familiarity with non-profit organizations providing resources, services, support and opportunities to court-involved individuals.
- One year or more hands-on program management experience
- Familiarity with curriculum-based, transformative mentoring programs
- Ability to multi-task in a fast-paced environment.
- Computer literate with working skills in Microsoft Word and Excel.
- Excellent oral, written and interpersonal communication skills.
- Advanced analytical, evaluative, and objective critical thinking skills.
- Exceptional interpersonal skills and the ability to interact effectively with management.
- Ability to perform complex tasks and handle multiple projects independently.

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

1. High school graduation or equivalent and three years of experience in community work or community centered activities in an area related to duties described above; or

2. Education and/or experience which is equivalent to “1” above.

Note: New York City Residency is not required for this position; however, you must reside in New York State.
