Flood Resiliency Help

Damage from floods is not covered by homeowner or property insurance, and flood insurance must be purchased as a separate policy. Most flood insurance policies are administered by the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) and sold through the same agents that sell other kinds of insurance. Ask your insurance agent, mortgage lender, or broker to learn more. You can look up your address and see if you are required to purchase flood insurance at:

Go Green!

Did you know that “fast fashion” clothing items are trendy and cheap—But they go out of style quickly, are poorly made, and shipped by air from overseas. Buy clothes locally from merchants to help your neighborhood and help the environment.
