SAFETY RECALL

Plastic Handle Fire Extinguishers

Hazard:

The fire extinguisher can become clogged or require excessive force to discharge. In addition, the nozzle can detach with enough force to pose an impact hazard.

This recall involves two styles of Kidde fire extinguishers: certain plastic handle fire extinguishers and push-button Pindicator fire extinguishers.

Description of Products:

The recall involves 134 models of Kidde plastic handle fire extinguishers manufactured between January 1, 1973 and August 15, 2017, including some models that were previously recalled in March 2009 and in February 2015.

Remedy for Both Fire Extinguisher Types:

Consumers should immediately contact Kidde for instructions regarding return of recalled fire extinguishers and to request a free replacement unit.

Consumer Contact: Kidde toll-free at

1-855-271-0773

from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. ET Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. ET Saturday and Sunday, or online at www.kidde.com
and click on Product Safety Notices for more information.

Push-Button Pindicator Fire Extinguishers

Description of Products:

The recall involves eight models of Kidde push-button Pindicator fire extinguishers manufactured between August 11, 1995 and September 22, 2017. The no-gauge push-button extinguishers were sold in red and white, and with a red or black nozzle. These models were sold primarily for kitchen and personal watercraft applications.

WEEKEND WALKS 2018 // GUIDELINES

What is a Weekend Walk?

- Temporarily pedestrianized street
- Multi-block: 2 to 10 blocks on a commercial corridor
- Multi-day: 2 to 10 days on regularly recurring dates
- Community driven: organized by BID, merchant's association, civic organization, etc.
- Engages and supports local businesses and community based organizations
- Areas that could be positively enhanced by more space for pedestrian friendly activities

What is not a Weekend Walk?

- Street fair with any vending, i.e. no exchange of money (cash, credit/debit cards, bitcoins)
- Events on primarily residential streets
- Single day or single block events, e.g. block parties
- Events where programming is exclusively geared towards children, e.g. play streets
- A group walk to raise funds for charity
- An event that does not promote NYC Streets as public space

Partner's Role

- Enter into an agreement with NYCDOT for community management services agreeing to the following:
- Programming and other activations that promote NYC streets as public space
- Ongoing communication with NYPD and the Community Board
- Coordinating with local businesses, community based organizations, etc.
- All required permits, licenses, site plan, and run of show provided in accordance with DOT's deadlines

NYCDOT's Role

- Assist in securing a Street Activity Permit from the Mayor's Office
- Provide limited funding based on availability and size of the proposed event
- Supply tables and chairs day of event
- Connecting partners to select programming and other activations
- Promotion of your event via social media and other channels

Requirements

- Events must be on a commercial corridor
- Minimum length: 2 blocks, maximum length: 10 blocks
- Minimum # of days: 2, maximum #: 10
- Single day events must be at least 4 blocks in length, but they are highly discouraged
- Events must be on a recurring and predictable schedule
- Consecutive event days are not permitted (e.g. Saturday 8/16 and Sunday 8/17)
- Events proposed adjacent to parks or other large public spaces are discouraged
- Attend mandatory partner meeting

Apply online by January 12th, 2018!

*Application does not guarantee acceptance into the Weekend Walks program, nor does it constitute an application for a SAPO permit

What Happens to Your Complaint?

Please keep this information sheet for your records.

1. You file a complaint (online, in person, by mail) and want help from DCA.
You include all documents about your complaint (store receipts, bill of sale, warranties, contracts, cancelled checks, letters to the business, judgments, etc.). DCA cannot process your complaint without these documents.

2. DCA receives and reviews your complaint and supporting documents.
If DCA is not the correct agency to assist you, DCA returns your complaint materials and, in most cases, includes contact information for the agency that can help you.

3. If DCA is the correct agency to assist you, DCA docket your complaint and begins mediation. DCA gives you the docket number which you should reference during any follow-up.
During the mediation process, DCA sends a copy of your complaint to the business for written response. Then, mostly over the phone, a DCA mediator speaks with both you and the business to reach an agreement and settle the matter.
If you have not heard from DCA after 45 days, please dial 311 to check the status of your complaint. Have your docket number handy.

4. Complaint closed.
In some cases, if the matter cannot be settled, DCA's administrative law judges will hear the complaint or DCA may inform you of the option to go to court.

Please note: DCA cannot serve as your attorney or give you legal advice. Please be aware that copies of all of your correspondence will be forwarded to the business that is the subject of your complaint, and may be provided to other governmental agencies. It is DCA's policy to remove your personal identifying information when releasing records pursuant to public records requests.

¿Qué sucede con su queja?

Por favor guarde esta hoja de información para sus registros.

1. Usted presenta una queja (en línea, en persona, por correo) y desea ayuda del DCA.

Usted incluye todos los documentos relacionados con su reclamo (recibos de la tienda, boleta de venta, garantías, contratos, cheques cancelados, cartas a la tienda, fallos, etc.). El DCA no puede procesar su reclamo sin estos documentos.

2. El DCA recibe y revisa su queja y documentos de respaldo.

Si DCA no es la agencia correcta para ayudarlo, DCA le devuelve los documentos de su reclamo. En la mayoría de los casos, DCA incluirá información de contacto de la agencia que puede ayudarlo.

3. Si el DCA es la agencia correcta para ayudarlo, DCA le asigna un número de causa e inicia la mediación. DCA le informa el número de caso, al que debe referirse para cualquier seguimiento.

Durante el proceso de mediación, el DCA le envía una copia de su queja a la tienda para una respuesta por escrito. Luego, un mediador de DCA habla con usted y la tienda, principalmente por teléfono para tratar de llegar a un acuerdo y resolver el asunto.

Si no ha tenido respuesta de DCA después de 45 días, por favor marque el 311 para revisar el estado de su queja. Tenga su número de causa a mano.

4. La queja se cierra.

En algunos casos, si no se puede llegar a un arreglo en el asunto, los jueces administrativos de DCA escucharán la queja o el DCA puede informarle sobre la opción de recurrir a los tribunales.

Por favor sírvase tener en cuenta: DCA no puede servir como su abogado ni darle consejo legal. Por favor tenga presente que las copias de toda su correspondencia serán enviadas al negocio que es objeto de su queja y pueden ser entregadas a otras agencias gubernamentales. La política del Departamento de Asuntos del Consumidor es eliminar la información de identificación personal cuando entrega registros en respuesta a solicitudes de registros públicos.
