

CELEBRATE WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE – LIGHT THE CITY IN PURPLE

The WomensActivism.NYC project at the New York City Department of Records and Information Services has coordinated a five-year celebration of American women winning suffrage, which culminates in 2020. We invite you to celebrate the centennial of women's suffrage by lighting up a building or lighting up other locations in purple on August 26, 2020. Women's Equality Day.

Please fill out this form and return it to womensactivism@records.nyc.gov. For more information about the WomensActivism.NYC project, please visit www.womensactivism.nyc.
