SECTION II – SUMMARY OF THE REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

A. Organizational Background

WDC is an independent not-for-profit organization created by the City of New York (“City”) for the purpose of assisting the City in developing and funding workforce initiatives. WDC works closely with the City’s Department of Small Business Services (“SBS”) to contribute to the economic vitality of New York City (“NYC”) by promoting workforce development and job creation through public and private partnerships.

WDC, in partnership with SBS, has developed a portfolio of industrial workforce development programs for un- and underemployed New Yorkers that support their career advancement into high-growth occupations. These programs train New Yorkers for in-demand skills linked directly to employers’ talent needs. WDC’s goal for these programs is to connect New Yorkers to skill development, high-value training experiences, and ultimately permanent employment with family sustaining wages.

B. Context and Purpose of this Project

The WDC seeks a training provider (“Contractor”) to deliver a high-quality training program that will help New Yorkers with no previous knowledge or experience (“Participants”) begin their career as a commercial driver. As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, there is a shortage of and strong demand for commercial drivers to address supply chain constraints. A commercial driving career can provide a quick pathway to sustainable wages and a variety of career options (e.g., as school bus, coach bus, or truck drivers) for low-income individuals. Commercial driving does not require any formal education and can be a strong career path for individuals facing the strongest barriers to quality employment, including those with a high school diploma or less and those with a former history with the criminal justice system.

The Contractor would develop and deliver a structured and comprehensive curriculum based on New York’s Department of Motor Vehicles (“DMV”) Commercial Driver’s License (CDL Class B) requirements. The delivery of this high-quality training should encompass the following key aspects:

- 1) Customized – tailored to address the needs and gaps in access experienced by New Yorkers new to the commercial driving industry.
- 2) Sector-focused – incorporates expert content specific to preparing Participants for occupational training and employment in the transportation industry, specifically in commercial driving. The training should provide examples relevant to transportation and industrial career paths in New York City.
- 3) Career-relevant – includes guidance and instruction relevant to securing a commercial driving permit and a Commercial Driver’s License (CDL Class B), as well as the procedures and protocols necessary to continue a career in commercial driving.

- 4) Industry-informed – curriculum and exercises are guided by industry expertise and refined as needed to reflect evolving industry trends.
- 5) Interactive and engaging – content that keeps Participants engaged in learning through activities such as industry specific role-plays, alumni speaking engagements, site visits to transportation hub(s), and walkthroughs and driving of a commercial vehicle.
- 6) Adaptable – content that can be adjusted based on evolving industry needs.
- 7) Assesses candidate progress – incorporates a method for determining whether the services had a measurable, positive impact on Participants and achieved the outcome of making them stronger candidates for a career in commercial driving.
- 8) Develops professional skills – Incorporated into each lesson plan including but not limited to punctuality, teamwork, professional communication, adaptability, problem-solving, time management, and interpersonal skills.

SECTION III – SCOPE OF SERVICES

A. Deliverables

The deliverables associated with implementing a full-time, tailored, and targeted training program specifically for New Yorkers with no prior experience interested in commercial driving are expected to include the following:

- 1) Training Components: The expected Contractor would propose the structure, length, number of training cohorts, and delivery of a full-time program model (at least 35 hours per week of training) that provides the following three primary components through either a single, cohesive occupational training or a combination of pre-training, occupational training, and/or apprenticeship programming:
 - a. Component 1: Develop and deliver an extensive, high-quality curriculum that prepares New Yorkers to pass all three permit exams, including the General Knowledge, Air Brakes, and Passenger Vehicles permit exams, for the New York State Commercial Driver Class B License and obtain endorsements for Passenger and School Bus vehicles.
 - b. Component 2: Be registered on or partner with an entity listed on the Training Provider Registry of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (“FMCSA”) to deliver 48 modules (each one-hour long) of entry level driver training (ELDT) to Participants and help them successfully pass each module.
 - c. Component 3: Provide extensive classroom-based and behind-the-wheel training that prepares Participants to the pass the road test for the Class B CDL.

With exception to behind-the-wheel training, which would require in-person instruction in a commercial vehicle, the Contractor would propose the delivery method of each component of the Program (whether in-person, virtual, or hybrid). Proposers are encouraged to be innovative and creative in their response and propose additional components that could be valuable additions to the Program model.

- 2) Training Topics: Through the above three primary training components, the Contractor would cover curriculum concepts including but not limited to the following.  - d. If a pre-developed curriculum already exists, the Contractor would be expected to adapt the curriculum as needed based on the requirements stipulated in this RFP and share the curriculum content with the WDC.
 - e. If any new curriculum is developed utilizing the funds from this RFP, the finished product's intellectual property shall be owned by the WDC.
- 4) Curriculum Materials: The Contractor would be expected to provide the deliverables below for the curriculum.

 - d. The Contractor would ensure that at least 80% of completing Participants are connected to a good job within 90 calendar days of completing the Program. A good job is defined as earning full-time, permanent employment in the commercial driving sector earning at least $17 per hour and working at least 30 hours per week. All jobs must be validated with a paystub, payroll record, or other WDC-approved documentation. For those not connected to a job within 90 calendar days, the Contractor would make best efforts to address and remedy the challenges the Participant is facing in finding employment.

The location(s) should provide a safe environment, with appropriate lighting and temperature and should be easily accessible by public transport.
