MAYOR'S OFFICE ESTABLISHES LIVERY DRIVERS RELIEF FUND

The Mayor's Community Assistance Unit has established a relief fund to assist the families of murdered livery drivers. The fund, announced recently by Mayor Rudolph W. Giuliani, Taxi and Limousine Commission Chairperson Diane McGrath-McKechnie, and Community Assistance Unit Commissioner Rosemarie O'Keefe, was created to help grief-stricken families defray funeral costs and other expenses.

Those wishing to assist these families should make checks out to "Livery Relief Fund," and send them to:
