

TLC Driver Meal Delivery

The City is currently conducting outreach to residents to identify those in need of meals during the COVID-19 health crisis. As soon as demand for meals begins to increase, the City will launch food delivery by TLC drivers. We expect delivery will launch in the coming days and your support is vital for the success of this critical program.

We will notify you once meal deliveries will begin and shifts can be reserved.