NEW YORK CITY TRANSITIONAL FINANCE AUTHORITY
ANNOUNCES SUCCESSFUL SALE OF $785 MILLION OF REFUNDING BONDS

The New York City Transitional Finance Authority ("TFA") announced today the successful sale of approximately $785 million of future tax secured fixed-rate subordinate refunding bonds, an increase of $85 million from the $700 million of bonds expected to be sold.

The TFA received over $341 million of retail orders for the bonds during the two-day retail order period preceding today’s sale. The TFA received approximately $663 million of priority orders from institutional investors on the approximately $470 million of bonds offered to them. Final stated yields on the $785 million of bonds varied by coupon and maturity, ranging from 0.11% in 2015 to 3.25% in 2031 for a par bond and 2.83% in 2030 for a premium coupon bond. The bonds were sold via negotiated sale through the TFA’s underwriting syndicate led by book-running senior manager Wells Fargo Securities with Barclays, BofA Merrill Lynch, Goldman, Sachs & Co., J.P. Morgan, Loop Capital Markets LLC, and Morgan Stanley serving as co-senior managers on the transaction.

Standard & Poor’s rates the TFA subordinate lien bonds at AAA, Fitch Ratings rates the TFA subordinate lien bonds at AAA and Moody’s Investors Service rates the TFA subordinate lien bonds at Aa1.
