Douglaston Pkwy & 240th St

Commissioner Janette Sadik-Khan  New York City Department of Transportation
Presented January 22, 2013 by the Pedestrian Projects Group to Community Board 11
Project Area
Cars don’t stop: no crosswalk or opposing traffic

Douglaston Pkwy south of 43rd Ave looking west

Existing Project Area
Intersection

Multiple stops within short distance

Pedestrians walk in channelization

CB11 sent request to DOT on 06/14/12 to install additional crosswalks

Douglaston Pkwy south of 43rd Ave looking north

Cars don’t stop: no crosswalk or opposing traffic

Douglaston Pkwy south of 43rd Ave looking west
Rapid Response Toolkit

- Pavement markings
- Concrete safety islands
- New signage
- Painted surfaces
- Flexible delineators
Project Proposal

Intersection

- Expanded pedestrian space
- New crosswalks
- Centralized stops at intersection
- Add new parking +2 spaces
- Re-route access to westbound 235th St via 43rd Ave
Intersection
Existing and Proposed

Existing

Proposed
Intersection
Existing Intersection
Proposed
Overly wide moving lanes

Existing Project Area
Corridor

Looking South on Douglaston Pkwy to 44th Ave

18 feet

51 feet

DOUGLASTON PY

18 feet
Project Proposal
Corridor

EXISTING

PROPOSED

Maintain right turn lane at Northern Blvd

Wide parking lanes for traffic calming

Clarifies traffic movement