

Your Civil Rights

The New York City Department of Transportation (NYC DOT) is committed to compliance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Civil Rights Restoration Act of 1987, and all related regulations and statutes (collectively, "Title VI"). Under Title VI, no person or group(s) of persons shall, on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, or income status, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, access to, or be otherwise subject to discrimination under any programs or services administered by NYC DOT. This complaint procedure is for persons who believe they have been discriminated against by NYC DOT.

Who can file a Title VI complaint?

A complaint may be filed by any person or group(s) of persons who believe they have been subject to discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, or income status in the programs or services administered by NYC DOT.

When should they file a complaint?

A complaint must be filed within 180 days of the date of the alleged discrimination.
