TLC EXPANDING CREDIT CARD OPTIONS

----- American Express & Discover Now Accepted for all Fines and Fees

The New York City Taxi and Limousine Commission has expanded the payment options available to its applicants and licensees. Effective immediately, the New York City Taxi and Limousine Commission will now accept both American Express and Discover credit cards at each of its facilities, including the Staten Island Office, for the payment of all fines and fees. This is in addition to MasterCard and VISA, which are already being accepted at our locations.

You may now use your American Express and Discover card for the payment of all fines and fees, inclusive of application, fingerprint and re-inspection fees. Note that all TLC fees remain non-refundable.

The person whose name appears on the front of the card must be present for the transaction to take place and the card must be properly signed.
