Reduced Application Ban after Revocation

The New York City Taxi and Limousine Commission (TLC) wishes to inform its licensees that TLC rules were recently amended to permit, in limited circumstances, early application after revocation.

Drivers whose prior TLC license was revoked under either the Critical Driver or Persistent Violator programs may request a reduced application ban if the driver's state license lists no more than three (3) total DMV points for all violations within the last three (3) years AND it has been at least one (1) year since the issue date listed on the TLC Critical Driver or Persistent Violator summons.

More information on the recent rule change as well as how to request a reduced application ban can be found here.
